Director of Training

Weekly Summary Report

25X1

2. Arrangements were made with the Training Officer of OSI to change the present Russian Language class schedules from 16 weeks of three days of class per week to 12 weeks with classes daily. [redacted] of ONI concurred in this arrangement. It is expected that four sections of these special Russian classes will start or continue on or about 1 June 1953 and four sections on or about 15 September 1953. Preliminary agreement from the Director of Training was obtained to allow partially cleared personnel to enter these training courses, provided Inspection and Security Office concurs. OSI will undertake negotiations to obtain this concurrence.
